Get well heeled for some rural chic

By Patsy Galore

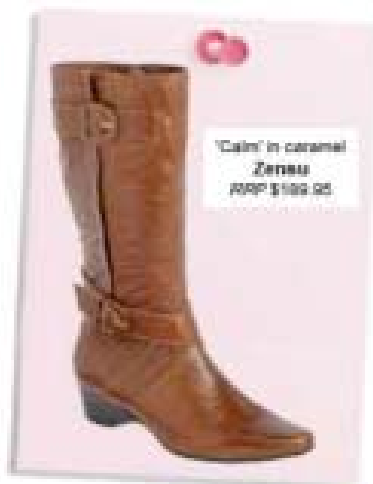

Think horses, think jodhpurs, think hay. This week we've traded in our flat, comfy boots for some rural chic, with heeled boots that would look at home on those well-to-do WAGs of the polo set. We've scoured the stores for our faves, so saddle her up and let's go shopping!

Something borrowed, something blue

The perfect choice for these dreary winter days, add a splash of colour with hot boots in a shade other than ubiquitous black or brown. With so many interesting styles on the market you'll be spoilt for choice, and don't be shy – you can always tone it down with a more somber outfit. Where to get yours: Orlik Denmark. These blue beauties were just born for a day in the fresh country air...

Blue suede knee-high boot
Orlik Denmark
RRP $242

'Calm' in caramel
Zensu
RRP $199.00

Buckles and straps and ties (oh my!) When you're riding for days, you need a boot that's strong, that's sturdy, that's secure... and even if you're not riding for days: a buckle, strap or tie will help make your ensemble look more authentic! Where to get yours: Zensu. The perfect shade of caramel, and great for teaming with dark denim, we also love these boots for their cross-over straps, utilitarian buckles, and classic wedge heel.

Stylish stilettos

Stilettos have ability to turn any woman into sex on stilts, so be prepared for a little rolling in the hay when you pull out these babies... The last word in style and glamour, they are probably a little impractical for a day in the country – but honey, they look amazing so who cares! Where to get yours: RMK. Red hot and with a funky turn down, they'll look amazing bucked into long, lean jeans.

'Walkabout' in cherry
RMK
RRP $199.00
